

A CHAFFEE COUNTY
RUNNING CLUB EVENT
3RD ANNUAL

A Run Through Time

SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 2008
9 AM START
SALIDA, COLORADO

Long before Pete Schlosser filed a plat for the Town Site of Turret, Colorado, before Zebulon Pike made his way up through the Arkansas Hills exploring the headwaters of the Arkansas River and Juan Batista De Anza took the same route to surprise the Comanche raide Cueno Verde near the present town of Rye, Colorado, Ute Indians wore a trail

Marathon/Half-Marathon
2 Mile Fun Run

up a rugged canyon into the Arkansas Hills to thier summer hunting grounds in South Park. Their trail is still used today and called The Ute Trail. "A Run Through Time" Marathon/Half Marathon uses their very route although much improved over the years. While running the course many claim to still hear echos of those original travelers in the canyons

RACE START/FINISH: Meet at Riverside Park in downtown Salida, CO at the corner of F Street and Sackett, a block from CO Hwy 291 stop-light. 8:00 am check in begins. 9:00 am races start at the foot of Tenderfoot Mountain. Finish in Riverside Park.

COURSE: Marathon route follows CO RD 175 (Ute Trail) north to the ghost town of Turret, CO. turn around and return via CO Rd 173 back to Salida. 1/2 Marathon up and back on CO RD 175 (Ute Trail). Most of routes on dirt/gravel roads with 1.5/3 miles pavement (marathon/half). Total climb 3800'+ marathon. 2000'+ half marathon. Fun run has 185' climb and does the first mile + with the other routes before looping back to start.

AID: Three water stops along the race course in the marathon and one in the half marathon. Recommended gear: March in the Rocky Mountains is unpredictable. Be prepared for anything from sunburn to extreme winter conditions. We suggest you carry a water bottle and energy food/fluids and perhaps an extra jacket. COME PREPARED for bad weather, so you can enjoy every condition better than the worst.

AWARDS AND DIVISIONS: Prizes in each race awarded to top three men/women in 10 year age groups, depending on entries. There will be a raffle for prizes from our sponsors. Awards start at noon for half and 2 p.m. for marathon in Riverside Park.
